

Introduced by Senator Cedillo

February 14, 2006

An act relating to foster children.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 1289, as introduced, Cedillo. Foster children: transitional housing and services.

Existing law provides for programs, such as the Transitional Housing Placement Program and the Supportive Transitional Emancipation Program (STEP), to provide services for foster children making the transition to independent living.

This bill would declare the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation to address transitional housing and life skills training requirements for foster children up to the age of 18 years.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to enact
- 2 legislation to address transitional housing and life skills training
- 3 requirements for foster children up to the age of 18 years.
